The information above will appear in the results and is used to determine awards.
If you have special categories, you will also need to include separate columns for each category type.

If applicable and desired, feel free to also provide the email and phone numbers (in separate columns).
We can run a report for you to provide contact information for those who did not return their timing devices.

ARE Event Productions' Josh Merlis, John Kinnicutt, and Sara Brenner can't hold back the smiles when they see clean, well organized spreadsheets.
